“ I would like to express my sympathy to Adeline’s family and friends. Not many people make it to that age, I can only imagine the changes in the world that she must have seen. Death is never welcomed by someone unless they are sick, or in pain or their quality of life is such that living is very difficult, so I think that Adeline would have appreciated the promise in Revelation 21:4 where it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” She will have the opportunity to experience that after her resurrection spoken of at John 5:28,29. I hope these Bible verses bring you some hope and comfort now and for the future. I am truly sorry for your loss.
