

Adrienne Eastwood

August 16, 1933 - September 25, 2021

Adrienne Eastwood went home to be with her Heavenly Father on September 25, at the age of 88. Born in Nebraska, Adrienne and her family moved to Whatcom County when she was a young child, first to Lynden then relocating to Bellingham.

After graduating from Bellingham High School, Adrienne attended Seattle University, then returned to Whatcom County. Adrienne held a variety of jobs, including positions with the Mt. Baker and Bellingham school districts, Whatcom Medical Bureau and local law offices.

Adrienne met her husband, George, at Squalicum Harbor on opening day of boating season. They spent the next 33 years enjoying life with their blended families and friends. Family was abundant with their combined nine children; Adrienne's four children and George's five children. Family and friends were Adrienne's greatest love; holiday gatherings, summer barbecues, game day celebrations, Friday lunches, boating trips, parades, and adventures to Alaska, Hawaii and Arizona. Over the years, Adrienne's club affiliations included Harborview Lions, the American Legion Auxiliary, VFW Auxiliary, and the Wheel and Keel club. Adrienne was an avid reader since childhood, and a gifted writer and musician. She loved to sing along while playing her guitar.

A loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and dear friend, Adrienne will be greatly missed.

Adrienne is preceded in death by her beloved siblings, sisters Roberta Mustachich, Lorraine Brunt, Eileen Loney, and brothers Larry DeMuth and Justin DeMuth.

Adrienne is survived by her husband, George Eastwood, her four children, Nancy Wardell, Diane Wasel (Gary), Joe (Michelle), Brian Bielaski (Lynne), eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Adrienne's life will be held Saturday, October 22, 2022 at Moles Farewell Tributes – Bellingham. Memorials may be made to the charity of your choice.
