

Alan C. Swink

December 3, 1931 - March 8, 2021

Alan was born in Albany, OR to Leonard and Thelma (McPherson) Swink on December 3, 1931. After graduating from high school, Alan received his AA and went on to work as a carpenter and Customer Engineer for IBM. In 1964, he was married to Joan M. Stellmacher.

A lover of the great outdoors, Alan had a multitude of hobbies including camping, waterskiing, hiking, cross country skiing, biking, tennis, golf, and woodworking. He enjoyed many summertime camping trips full of waterskiing, smores, and good food with his family as well as hiking trips to Mt. Hood and salmon fishing on the Willamette River. Always ready to have a good time, he liked dancing and playing bridge. Alan was also a skills craftsman. He spent hours creating fun wood working projects and anytime something was broken he would fix it right away, making it better than ever before. His family will miss his happy, helpful, and hardworking spirit.

Alan is survived by his wife of 57 years, Joan Swink; son, Kirk Swink; daughter, Elyse Krueger; and three beloved grandchildren.
