“ Dearest family, Sorry to hear of our recent loss of Alta,
I've known Alta all my life, back to Marietta, I've worked side by side with her for the Lummi weavers, and got quite close to her through many years of working together. As well as Verla. Lots of fun laughter and tears together.
I used to admire her weaving, the white wides on her loom.
Beautiful work, no one could compare to her work.
She was one of two people other than family that called me , “William”. I always knew who was behind me when she said, ” Hello, William.”
I will surely miss her. Sending Ne-skli'-sxw, ne-scha le cha (Love you, My Relatives)
