“ To Amanda’s family, I am so sorry for the loss of such a beautiful woman, as her neighbor I saw the love she had for all of you when she would talk so proudly of all. I will miss talking with her as she would be out on her walk with Bailey and Jay. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and through your time of grieving. ~Holle Zender

“ I know that no words can help ease the pain and loss that you are feeling right now. May you find comfort in your precious memories and in the thoughts of those who share your sorrow. May the words of Psalm 55:22 “ Throw your burden upon Jehovah God himself, and he himself will sustain you” bring the entire family comfort and strength. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ To Amanda’s Family, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I know that the battle with Alzheimer disease is a cruel and vicious one. I pray that the many memories with Amanda help you through this challenging time. God promises that there will be a time here on earth when there will be no more sickness, death, mourning or outcry. (Revelation 21:3,4) What a wonderful hope we have of welcoming our dear loved ones, like Amanda, back into a much brighter world. (Acts 24:15)
My sincere condolences go out to all of Amanda’s family.
