

Angela Agnes Metzger

September 22, 1956 - March 5, 2016

Angela Agnes Metzger, 59, of Lynden, WA, passed into the arms of her Savior on Saturday March 5th, 2016, six months after being diagnosed with cancer. She accepted the Lord Jesus as her Savior at the age of 22 and spent the rest of her life in a way that would glorify Him.

Angie was born in Philadelphia, PA, on September 22nd, 1956 to Albert Matulis and Agnes Andrulis Matulis. She raised in Philadelphia where she married Norman C. Metzger on September 9th, 1978. She worked as a legal secretary until she had her first child and became a stay at home mom, a full time job that she loved. In July of 1993 she, along with her family, relocated to Lynden so that they could be part of a church just across the border in Abbotsford, British Columbia. She spent the next 23 years raising her family and sharing the love of Jesus with everyone she encountered.

Angie is survived by her husband Norman, son Jason (& Sarah) Metzger, daughter Katelyn (& Nick) Weatherby, step-daughter Wendy Politi, step-son Christopher (& Janice) Metzger, and their families, which includes nine adored grandchildren. She is also survived by her mother Agnes Matulis, sister Alberta Morris, brother Albert Matulis, their spouses, and six nieces and nephews.

A celebration of her life will be held on Saturday, March 12th at Grace Baptist Church, 338 N. Park St, Lynden, at 10 a.m. with a light lunch to follow.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ I'm truly sorry for your loss. May God give you strength, as we await the day when no one will get sick or die (Isaiah 33:24 & 25:8) and our loved ones will awaken in the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a joyous day that will be!

Mercy R. - March 05, 2016 at 12:00 AM