

Ann Louise Lalonde

February 3, 2022

Ann Louise Lalonde was born in Seattle, WA to Ernest Bull and Virginia Kalberg on May 15, 1942. She died in Bellingham, WA on February 3, 2022. Ann enjoyed hiking and picnics in the local parks like Hovander Park, and Whatcom Falls, which neighbored the family home. She loved her annual trips to eastern Washington to spend time in Leavenworth and to visit with family. The cookies, pies, and other sweet treats she made must have had a bit of magic. Unexpected visitors always seemed to know when she was baking. She loved decorating the house for all the seasons and holidays that made it feel warm and welcoming. Ann spent many years working at Bellingham Frozen Foods until the cannery closed. She loved the work and the friends she made there. Ann was married to John Lalonde and is survived by her 5 children, Patty, Janice, Joe, Marion, and Renée, as well as 15 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed.
