“ For over 58 years I'd not known a day without you. Now you are gone. Though we are separated for the first time in my life and I will never again see your face or feel your hugs, you will still be with me every day in my heart. I miss you Mom.

“ Ann was a good neighbor of ours for eleven years. I enjoyed our ladies luncheons when she was well and able to attend. When I visited Ann when visiting angels and hospice were caring for her, she always asked me about Chuck who also is living with cancer. She had a lot of courage and cared about others. A classy lady. Blessings to Jim and her children.
