“ Ann was a ray of sunshine and I feel privileged to have known her. Her smile and chuckles were infectious! We had so much fun playing Bunco and enjoying the Black Opal :) that John introduced. She will be sorely missed!!

“ We feel the empty space next door — the space Ann filled with sweetness and kindness. It feels wrong that she’s not there. Ann, who fed the hummingbirds. and laughed at the two that warred over her bright red feeder. Ann, who enjoyed the frog chorus in “Lake Brisbane”, and the beauty of flowers. Ann, our friend. We miss her. Please accept our condolences. May God bless you during this season of sorrow. Ed and Marrienne Heydron

“ Your mother Ann was such a good friend to my mother in law Alice Vitaljic. Shewould always take the time while she was shopping at Macy’s to stop and talk to me. She would always enjoy giving me updates on her family. It was always a pleasure to talk to Ann, she was so very nice. I always enjoyed waiting on her at Macys and enjoyed her when I shopped at GallenKamps as well. I will miss her vistits.
