

Annie "Anne" Martindale

March 18, 1935 - August 11, 2025

Annie "Anne" Martindale was born in Kimberly, B.C., on March 18, 1935. She grew up in Vancouver, B.C., where she attended Simon Fraser grade school and met the love of her life and future husband, Jim Martindale. After graduating from secretarial school, Anne went on to work at the Vancouver Yacht Club.

Jim and Anne were married on March 19, 1954. They had two daughters while living in Vancouver, and a third daughter after they emigrated to Southern California in the early 1960s. Anne worked as a secretary and bookkeeper for many years while they raised their family. When Jim retired, they relocated to Ferndale, and eventually decided to settle in Lynden where Anne discovered her love of antiques and collectibles. For many years, her antique booth in Lynden gave her much joy.

Anne loved the Lord and was a dedicated Christian for over fifty years. She was a loving wife to Jim and a dedicated mother to Pam, Susan, and Sandra, a doting Grandmother to Jennifer, Ryan, Evan, Ian, Cameron, Riley, and Dylan, and a great-grandmother to Finn, Stella, Quincy, and Fiona. She had a grateful and loving spirit. She felt blessed to know she was loved by her family, to have had many lifelong friends, and to be part of a wonderful community. Anne will be greatly missed by all.

No public memorial service is planned at this time.
