“ Leslie, Chuck, and Billy, Suzie and I are sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. I will never forget the wonderful times I shared with her. Arlene was such an amazing woman and such a pleasure to be around. You have our deepest condolences and sympathies. Your mother will truly be missed and you can live with the memory that she was such a great person.

There is a saying Helen Keller once wrote, “What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. All that we love so deeply becomes part of us.” You all, including the grandchildren, great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews will be in our prayers as we remember wonderful Arlene.
