“ Dear Bernice, what a sad surprise to read LA Times about Arnie. My children all remember you during Jim’s college days as you did well to keep up with each other. Our trip to Surprise, AZ to help you celebrate your 50th was a great memory and we shall treasure those days with you and Arnie. Jim has been gone over a year now and I am doing well having great support in family and church groups. Maybe you can update your present address via email. Your detailed new home in Surprise was such a pleasure to view. TU! Sylvia

“ To The Loober Family – We will always remember Arni as a dear, sweet man with a heart of gold. He was always ready and willing to help anyone and was ready to put the needs of others before his own. He will certainly be missed.
