

B. May Thomas

May 17, 1923 - April 26, 2014

B. May Thomas was called home by her Savior Jesus Christ on April 26, 2014. She and her twin sister Mary were the last children born to John and Anna Medeas in Custer, WA on May 17, 1923. She was raised and adopted by her aunt and uncle John and Susie Hovan.

May was proud to have served her country in the U.S Army in Paris, France during WW II. After returning she married Art Schoessler in 1946. Together they farmed in the Northwood area near Lynden and raised their family of three children: Raymond, Alice, and Dale. When their marriage ended she moved to Bellingham, then met and married Neil Thomas in 1972. She worked many years as a bookkeeper at Griffith Furniture, and later she and Neil owned the Club Barber Shop.

She was a life member and past president of the V.F.W. Auxiliary Post 9301 of Lynden, as well as a member of Garden Street Methodist Church and the Lynden Community/Senior Center.

May, for the last number of years had resided at the Courtyard (Silverado) Memory Care Facility. Even though she didnt recognize and remember she was always willing to give a hug.

Mays husband Neil passed away Jan. 2013. She is survived by her brother

Albert Medeas, children Raymond (Priscilla) Schoessler, Alice Fairall, and Dale Schoessler. Also surviving her are her grandchildren Gary (Vicki) Fairall, Andrae Schoessler, Adam Schoessler, Pete (Heather) Fairall, and Steven Fairall. She leaves great-grandchildren Christian, Helena, Davis, and Nick. Also numerous nieces and nephews.

“ I will never forget my little may may! I used to work for Silverado and no Matter how bad my day was going may always put a smile on my face she was very dear to my heart and I will miss her so much. My last memory of her is a very happy one, one that will make me smile for years to come. She was always up for hugs didn't matter who you were. My condolences to the family she will be missed by many!
