

Barry John Chamberlain

February 13, 1939 - June 11, 2025

Barry Chamberlain passed away at his piano inside his Bellingham home on the afternoon of June 11th, 2025. He took his last breath while in the arms of his devoted wife, Linda Chamberlain, at Harborview Medical Center and in the presence of both his children, eldest son Aaron Chamberlain and daughter Shaunna Stroud.

Born to John and Charlotte Chamberlain on February 13th, 1939, in Martinez, California, he was an only child. Born gifted with a musical mind, his parents early on knew that the piano was his first love. He was called a child prodigy and was to study and love music for his entire life.

He enlisted in the Marine Corps at eighteen, where he traveled the globe playing as a part of the Marine Corps Band. After his tour ended, he came home to pursue his high school sweetheart. He won her heart by professing his love for her, and they were married in May 1961 in Bellingham, Washington. Married 64 beautiful years, Barry lived a long, full life and will be missed by so many.

Tribute Wall

EL

“ Barry, you are an artist, a Marine, and a friend of my dad, Reg Lewis. That’s a hell of a combination. I remember with fondness the last time I saw you — we did the “stoner” handshake together and we both smiled afterward. See you on the other side.

Eric Lewis - June 19, 2025 at 12:00 AM