“ My love and condolences to all. Betty was such a special friend to our Mom. I loved her from the first time I met her as a small child. Her jokes were so funny, just to watch her tell them was a laugh. And her OMG room, the first time in their home, Betty opened up a door and proudly stated “this is the Oh my God room” because when you open the door you say Oh my God” I know she and all of her other good friends are up there bowling a game right now.
