

Bill Henry VanWoudenberg

December 23, 1963 - February 12, 2013

Bill VanWoudenberg, age 49, passed away Tuesday, February 12, 2013 in Bellingham. He was born December 23, 1963 in Bellingham to John and Judy (Jansen) VanWoudenberg.

Bill was mechanically minded and was a machinist by trade. He enjoyed genealogy, fishing and was a creative problem solver. He also treasured his dog, Asia and spending time with his nieces and nephew.

He is survived by his parents John and Judy VanWoudenberg; twin-sister Peggy (Ken) Tarasenko; brother Wayne (Teresa) VanWoudenberg; nephew Mason; and nieces Olivia, Elizabeth and Meagan.

A funeral service will be held Friday, February 22nd, at 1:00p.m. at Moles Farewell Tributes, Greenacres, 5700 Northwest Dr. in Ferndale. Please view the memorial and sign the online guest book to share your thoughts and memories of Bill

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Very good person...

Tamy (Williams) Blanding - August 20, 2021 at 12:00 AM

KF

“ *John & Judy,
Wishing you and your family God's blessing and grace in this time of sorrow. I am familiar with the process of grief and loss, and am willing to help if needed. Blessings to you both and your family members.*

Your Neighbor, Karen Finney

Karen Finney - February 12, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SG

“ *Bill worked with us in our machine shop at the beginning of his career (and ours) many years ago. We remember the creative and talented Bill who had a passion for learning and doing great work.
Bill was a bright spot during a time when we needed the positive attitude he brought into our business. We will miss not having the opportunity to renew our acquaintance as we come back to the NW.*

Skip & Peggy Green - February 12, 2013 at 12:00 AM