

Bonnie Mae Papetti

May 2, 1928 - April 30, 2016

Bonnie Mae Papetti, passed away April 30, 2016, just two days before her 88th birthday. She was born Elizabeth Maitland Ried on May 2, 1928. After graduating in 1946, she married her high school sweetheart. Her only son, James Tyler Cross, Jr. was born in 1948.

Bonnie worked for a series of Doctor's during which time she experienced a divorce and single parenting. In 1964 she met Dominic V. Papetti while shopping for fresh caught crab on the docks of Pittsburg, California. Shortly after, they married and had daughter, Diane Rena Papetti, in 1966. The family moved to Bellingham, WA.

While her husband was gone fishing, Bonnie kept busy raising a daughter, caring for her mother, spending time with her sister, Georgia, and her niece and nephews. She also liked to crochet, cook, grow roses, and enjoy her animal companions.

Children grown, she bought and ran the Web Locker restaurant. She worked at the Bellingham Country Club and Yorky's in Fairhaven while also doing the books for the fishing business.

Bonnie is preceded in death by her mother, a sister, a nephew, and her faithful Maltese, Missy. She is survived by her husband, sister, Georgia Enns of Bellingham, son, daughter, a niece, 3 nephews, 6 grands, 7 great-grands, and 1 great-great-grand.

A burial service will be held on Wednesday, May 11th at 2:30pm at Bayview Cemetery.
