

Bradley Lloyd Clark

December 4, 1966 - July 6, 2025

Bradley Lloyd Clark of Blaine, Washington Passed away unexpectedly on July 6th, 2025. He was born in Yakima, Washington on December 4th, 1966.

Bradley was a lifelong resident of Blaine, Washington. He was a devoted Single Father of two who he cherished the most in life. He enjoyed his career in farming and agriculture which started his love for collecting John Deere memorabilia.

Growing up he was very involved in competition bowling and Rodeo. On a nice sunny day, he enjoyed a motorcycle ride through the country or fishing on the river. Bradley will never be forgotten by anyone who had the pleasure of meeting him. He had the most impactful presence, funniest personality and the biggest heart.

Bradley is preceded in death by his father Darryl Clark, grandparents Ed and Leona King and grandparents Benjamin "Jr" and Cleo Clark.

Survived by his Children April Clark-Roberts (Mason) of Bellingham, WA, Son Brian Clark-Vanderyacht (Lindsey) of Everson, WA, sister Elizabeth (Richard) of Wimberley, Texas, brother Christopher Clark-King of Birch Bay, WA, several nieces and nephews, and grand dog Winston Clark-Roberts.

Tribute Wall

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Love u

Tabitha - July 30, 2025 at 12:00 AM