Tribute Wall

“ *To the Boyer Family,
I am so sorry you have lost your mother such a short time after your father, but know that now they are together like so many years in the past. They will continue to be in your hearts and minds every day, and know they are both watching over you as before. Hold each of your siblings close at heart as you know family means everything. My thoughts and prayers will be with your family in the days to come.*
