Casey Haugness

December 31, 1960– May 12, 2026

Casey Haugness was born in Bellingham, Washington, to Norval and Betty Haugness. Growing up, he loved playing baseball, watching the Seattle Mariners, and spending time at family gatherings. Though somewhat quiet, those who knew Casey best knew him as loyal, loving, kind, funny, and incredibly hardworking.

Casey and Judi made the perfect team. Together, they created a beautiful home and garden and built a life centered around family. He loved his family deeply and especially enjoyed watching his grandchildren participate in sports and other activities.

Casey is survived by his beloved wife, Judi; his sons, Matt (Jaimee) and their children, Avery and Savannah, and Beau (Alyse) and their son, Jackson; and his daughter, Whitney Westdahl (Jack) and their children, Hayden, Rylan, and Blake. He is also survived by his brother, Ron (Nancy)Haugness, His sister Debbie Haugness, along with many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Norval Haugness and Betty Jones, and his sister, Susie Haugness.

A Celebration of Life will be planned for a future date.
