

Cecil Tinker-Smith

September 3, 1977 - November 16, 2014

Cecil C. Tinker-Smith, age 37, has gone to make music with the angels. He was born on September 3, 1977 in Mt. Vernon, WA to George and Jeanne Tinker-Smith. He is a graduate of both Bellingham High School, and Whatcom Community College. Cecil lived life deeply, and to the fullest. He worked as a contractor and home builder, but his loves were music production and DJ'ing (he was an exceptional musician and recording master), snowboarding, his dogs Sadie and Buddha, and soccer. Everything Cecil did was grounded in a rich spiritual connection to The Source of All Life, and the world around him. He was a faithful defender of the downtrodden and all those unable to find justice in this unjust world. Cecil will be greatly missed by all those who knew him.

This loving son is survived by his parents, George and Jeanne Tinker-Smith, sister Stephanie Smith, brother Terrence Smith, grandmother Lola Glover, his beloved dogs, and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Cecil is preceded in death by his grandfathers Cecil H. Tinker, and Henry Glover, and grandparents Augustine and Clarence Smith.

A memorial service will be held for Cecil on Wednesday December 3, 2014, 1:00pm at Moles Farewell Tributes – Ferndale 2039 Main St. Ferndale, WA 98248.

Memorial donations may be made to the Whatcom Humane Society and the Whatcom Peace and Justice Center.

“We are intimately connected to the source of all life. In the remembering of this will come an awakening that will dispel the myth of separation and bring you into the very presence of God. This is my prayer. Until we meet again.”

“ Cecil, its been such a long time since we were running the streets of St Clair and Michigan streets; however, it feels like yesterday. From Roosevelt to Whatcom to BHS, you always made me laugh. Forever I will be your “Chefany Chung” (thanks for the nickname that lasted all my life!!). Thanks for the laughter, the music and the memories. Be at peace my friend! See you on the flip side!
