“ My sweet sweet friend, it's been so long since we saw each other. And today I just became aware of the fact that you're now gone. My heart is broken and shattered with the thought of such a beautiful beautiful person being taken from this Earth so young. You survived so much in your life and gave so much love so many people. I will miss you so deeply I cannot be explained by words alone. I pray my sweet friend that you're happy and pain free and looking down on your children's smiling, I will love you always and forever and never forget you my sweet heart.
