

Cindy R. Carmichael

May 16, 1957 - April 7, 2020

Cindy Rae Carmichael (Klineman), age 62, passed away on Tuesday April 7, 2020. She was the wife of Bruce Carmichael, and they shared 37 years of marriage together.

Cindy was born in Bellingham, WA on May 16, 1957. She was the daughter of David and Velaura Klineman. Cindy was the youngest of three children. She attended and graduated from Sehome High School. While attending school she carried the American flag as an honor guard for the band. She was also on the Junior Drill team for the Eagles Club in Bellingham.

Cindy worked in the medical field for over 30 years. She was employed by Peace Health Cardiology until 2018 when she retired due to her illness.

As a young adult Cindy was active in the Eagles Club for many years. She loved bowling and spent time on a league. She enjoyed camping at the family property on the Skagit River. She loved dancing and listening to music, especially Aerosmith. Her favorite thing of all was spending time with family and those she loved.

Cindy is survived by the love of her life Bruce Carmichael, Laura (Theth) Foeung, Sarah Duncan, stepchildren Jason Carmichael and Teresa Dunkin, grandchildren Khailon, Tayana, Kalliyan, Olive, and Ethan, brother Darrell (Debbie) Klineman, sister Dawn (Michael) Holcomb, numerous nieces and nephews, and her beloved Yorkie Lily.

She is preceded in death by her parents David and Velaura Klineman, and her niece Tara Klineman.

Cindy was able to light up any room she walked into. She had a kind, caring, and compassionate heart that everyone gravitated towards. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Due to the current times and social distancing, services had to be postponed. A memorial service will be held as soon as we are able to come together.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ *Bruce and family –
Sending you lots of love as you walk through this grief. Cindy was always full of joy and kindness. May your memories become even sweeter over time.*

Darla

Darla - April 20, 2020 at 12:00 AM