“ I've known Dale since Bellingham High School Band days, and can still picture him playing his drum. When he married one of my best friends, Sandy, he became one of the gang. I always picture Dale smiling.
I am so sorry for your loss, Sandy, and my deepest sympathies are with you and all of your family. Dale left us too young. My heart is with you. Love, Danae

“ Sandy, so very sorry for your loss – words can not even come to mind. Your family, friends and for sure your pups will be of great comfort to you. Dale was a good friend. Always the first to volunteer to help with anyone in need. He will be missed by all. Gone too soon...Much love, hugs and prayers...
