

Darren James Wilson

April 7, 1991 - October 1, 2014

Darren, age 23, went suddenly to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Wednesday, October 1. Darren was fun loving and always surrounded by friends. He was employed as a sandblaster at Dunkin & Bush.

He is survived by his mother, Sharleen Wilson, sister, Erin Wilson; nephews Jacob and Kolton Wilson; grandmother Lynn Sorensen, uncles Brett Lane, Eric and Corby Sloan, Jim Wilson, Spencer Cope; aunts Melody Sloan, Elaina Cope, Nadine Wilson; numerous cousins Mike Sloan, Nate Sloan, Chelsea and Evan Vickers , Levi Sloan, Lindsey, Lorelie and Corby Sloan, Kevin and David Slotemaker and Steven Cope.

Darren was preceded in death by great grandmother Ellen Einarson, Allie Poe, Grandpa Kaj Sorensen, Needham Bryant Sloan, Uncles Lance Knowles, Grandmother Georgianna Wilson, Grandfather Claude Wilson, and father Dirk Wilson.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ To Darren’s Family Our hearts hurt for the loss of Darren that you and the neighborhood have all suffered.He always was compassionate and adult in how he spoke to us. He offered to help when help was needed and was protective of his younger family members .This handsome,polite young man who first walked into my life on a cold, foggy night,helped me look for my older and medically compromised dog.We did not even know the other’s name,but he helped.He was wet and muddy from the marsh area and yet never complained.We found my dog, and he,Karen and I laughed and joked and he introduced himself,wrote down his number and said call if we needed anything.This is the Darren we will all remember.We will remember the young man who was concerned of fire danger on July 5th.He wanted to protect his young nephew.Thank you Darren for touching our hearts and leaving us a little richer in spirit for having known you.May you fly on the wings of angels.God speed!

chris needham and karen howard - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

JT

“ We are so sorry to hear about Darren. I didn’t know what happened?
Aunt Allie was my dads sister.

Jan Tedesco - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM