

David Carl Lane

January 8, 1951 - July 8, 2013

David Carl Lane, age 63, passed away gently on July 8, 2013. David was born in Bellingham, WA on January 8, 1951 to loving parents Carl and Maryellen Lane of Lynden, WA. Resided in Lynden and attending Lynden schools, he was also gainfully employed by local farmers, Intalco, and Power Twines. In his later years, David enjoyed running the train at the Blaine Outlet Mall and being rewarded with the big smiles of his passengers. He also enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping, and the great outdoors with family and friends. Motorcycles and cars were another passion, as were western and science fiction books and TV programs.

Joined in marriage, David and Pat were blessed with four daughters: Treena, Tina, Tammy, and Tiffany. They were equally blessed with 13 grandchildren: Laurie, Sara, Carla, Brittney, Alexandria, Taylor, Jackie, Keri, Ashley, Natasha, Jacob, Kyler, and Kaden. Again, they have been blessed with 6 great grandchildren: Blake, Aiden, Samirah, Thomas, Sydney, and one on the way. David is also survived by his mother, Maryellen Lane of Lynden, WA, brother Rick (Dixie) Lane of Everson, WA, and sister Kelly Lane of Henderson, NV, numerous nieces and nephew, and one aunt, Stella Jones of Sacramento, CA.

Farewell Tribute Information

A memorial will be held in Davids honor for family and friends at Bertheson Park kitchen #2 in Lynden on Saturday July 20, 2013 from 11:30am to 4:00pm. There will be a BBQ and potluck. Come enjoy some memories of David and share a side dish.

Tribute Wall

“ MayEllen & family sorry to hear of your loss. I always enjoyed working with David at Powers Twines, he was always such a prankster.

Lois Holmes - July 08, 2013 at 12:00 AM