

David M. Sims Jr.

May 7, 1969 - August 23, 2021

David Michael Sims Jr., age 52, passed away tragically on the weekend of August 21, 2021 at his home in Ferndale, WA.

Born in Everett, Washington he is the son of David Sims Sr. and Diane Sims. David attended Ferndale schools and lived in Custer and Ferndale as an adult. He had been a machinist at Walton Tool in Ferndale since he was 17 years old, and became the owner of the shop in 2010 where he continued to work.

In his younger days he enjoyed fixing and restoring cars, camping, being outside, the demolition derby and boating on the saltwater. You could find him at his house staying busy with yard work, and house projects. He had a pond and tree fort there that was his pride and joy. He enjoyed visiting the casino and hanging out with his close friends at home.

He will be remembered for his bright yellow Corvette, love of going fast, devotion to detail, and his headstrong yet generous personality.

David is survived by his parents; David and Diane Sims, brother; Wesley Sims, sisters; Kimberly Kaya and Deanna Simmons, children; Nicole and Megan Sims, grandsons; Izaiah Chapman and Addison Steg, and granddaughters; Amayah Chapman, Aviannah Steg, and Dixie Robinson.

The memorial service will be held on the 24th of September at 1:00pm at Greenacres Memorial Park located at 5700 Northwest Dr. in Ferndale, WA.

Tribute Wall

TD

“ We were so saddened to hear of the loss of David Junior sending love and hugs to the family and prayers rest in peace my beautiful nephew

Theresa Drake - September 18, 2021 at 12:00 AM