

David Joseph Waller

February 13, 1959 - May 2, 2018

David J. Waller, age 59, of Bellingham, passed away on Wednesday, May 2, 2018. David was born on February 13, 1959 in Seattle, WA to Frances and Violet (Jefferson) Pierce. David joined the United States Airforce on June 17, 1977. He was humble yet very proud of his services. He was an aircraft propeller mechanic in the Airforce. David was a free spirit, caring, humorous, optimistic and a daredevil man. He has a had a big heart. He will be remembered for his laughter and how he was always joking. He loved going camping and fishing. He had may cars and liked the speed that they could reach. He loved turning wrenches with his son Eddy. David is preceded in death by his parents; wife Jessica; brother Joseph Kirby; and sister Julia Bergerson. He is survived by daughter Violet Waller; son Edward Waller; sisters Staci James, Sherry James and Joni Frances; brothers Doug James, Jewell James and Walter James and Cheryl Doherty. A prayer service will be held on Sunday, May 6, at 6:00pm. Funeral services will be Monday, May 7, 10:00am. Both services will be held at the Wexliem Community Building.

Tribute Wall

JC

“ Sorry to learn of Dave’s passing. He was the first man I enlisted into the USAF, out of the Northgate recruiting station, if I’m not mistaken.

Joseph Campeau - May 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DO

“ Condolences to the family and friends....RIP David....

darlene olsen - May 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM