

Dean Adair Crapser

September 11, 1942 - February 13, 2013

Beloved husband, father, son, grandfather, great grandfather, brother-in-law, uncle and friend, Dean Adair Crapser passed away peacefully surrounded by family and friends February 13th, 2013 at St Josephs Hospital.

Dean was born on September 11th, 1942 the only child of Stan and Norma Crapser.

Dean was loved by all who met him over the many years of his life, from co-workers at Intalco, softball teams that faced his mighty pitch and friends and family that enjoyed his quick-witted sense of humor, not to mention his joy of playing card and board games with his family and friends and yes, more than a few pieces of furniture were destroyed over the years from a rowdy, intense game of spoons, but damn it was a great time.

Dean was preceded in death by his wife Lorraine, his son Rob, parents Stan and Norma Crapser, father and mother-in-law, Jim & Mary Aregger, brother-in-laws Dick and Jack Aregger, sister in-law Jennifer Aregger and Nephew Mike Aregger.

Dean is survived by his son Robs children Justin (wife Becky), Alyssa, Courtney and Kayla; son Rick (Kris) and his children Brittinee, Joey and Maddie; Daughter Wendee (Lance) Dawson and son Tanner; Son Ryan (Julie) and his son Kyler.

Like Lorraine, Dean was very proud of their first great-grandchild Payton (Justins Daughter). He is also survived by brother- in-law Jim (Mert) Aregger, sister-in-laws Bernice (Roy, also a child hood BFF), Regina Hiatt, Carol Aregger and numerous nieces, nephews and great friends.

Raise your glass to a quick-witted, hard working, kind-hearted gentle man.

Love you Deano, we will miss you dearly!

“ Sorry to hear about Dean passing away. I went to grade school with him in North Bellingham. He used to sit in front of me. My friend llene and I had a crush on him. He was always so nice and fun. One time Dean and I were horsing around and had to go the gymnasium and have a boxing match with the whole school watching. We had a weird principal at the time. Dean is someone you can never forget.

“ To the loving Family & Friends may I offer my sympathy in the painful loss of your dear Dean. He lived a very full life and will surely be missed by all who knew & loved him. Hopefully you will be comforted by the following Bible Verses: Psalms36:7 “HOW PRECIOUS YOUR LOVING-KINDNESS IS O GOD! AND IN THE SHADOW OF YOUR WINGS THE SONS OF MEN THEMSELVES TAKE REFUGE, FOR WITH YOU IS THE SOURCE OF LIFE”
