

Dixie Lee Pettit

May 7, 1948 - November 25, 2015

Dixie Lee Pettit (Countryman), age 67, of Blaine, WA, passed away on Wednesday, November 25, 2015. She lost her valiant battle with breast cancer, and passed away surrounded by her loved ones. She was married to Curtis H. Pettit Jr., until his death on June 18, 2002.

Dixie was a hairdresser for over twenty years and dearly loved her family. She is survived by her daughter Gina Harris (Steinbach), son Eric Steinbach, son-in-law Donnie Harris, seven grandchildren: grandsons Ethan Brasfield, Adriel Brasfield, and Nikolas Steinbach; granddaughters Willow Brasfield, Serenity Brasfield, Brenya Harris, and Finely Harris, as well as nine nieces and nephews.

She is predeceased by her husband Curtis H. Petti Jr. (2002), daughter Brenda Marie Olson (1974), and father Ralph W. Countryman (2004).

The family would like to thank the Whatcom Hospice House for taking such good care of Dixie in her final days.

Memorials can be made out to Eric Steinbach, 4390 Bobblet Rd, Blaine, WA, 98230. Visit www.farewelltributes.com to leave condolences.

Tribute Wall

GG

“ Gina and Eric ...so sad to hear your mom passed away i met her in birch bay in the late1960s we did date a few times i live in Canada and did the trip several times to Custer . Met her mom and dad at a dinner at their house and then water skiing at i be;lieve it was Lummi Island with her family i think she was one of the nicest people I have ever met . Condolences to you and your families RIP Dixie

Grant G - September 05, 2025 at 12:00 AM

AS

“ Sending love and thoughts your way. She was an unforgettable person and will live on forever through you Gina. I feel honored to have been able to spend time with her

Ashlee - November 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CV

“ Gina and Eric – I was so sad to see that your Mom passed away. She was such a nice person. We used to play Bingo together at the American Legion. I thought of her often and wondered how she was and what she was doing. Lost touch when Bingo closed down. May God Bless you and your family – She will forever be in your hearts.

Ceal Venett - November 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM