“DAd you raised me since I was a little girl. I remember when you and mom got married, I was so upset because I couldn't go on your honeymoon with you guys. I can remember all the camping trips to Ross Lake we took and the ones to Yellow Stone with Debby. I love you so much tell the rest of the family hi for me and please give mom a big kiss from me, and I will see you all when it is my time to go.
