

Doris Muriel Aason

September 1, 1919 - July 10, 2013

Doris M. Barr Aason, age 93, was born in Bellingham on September 1, 1919. Doris went to Ferndale High School and worked for her mother Selma Berg at the Black Hawk Cafe where she met Vic Aason. They were married in Seattle, WA on December 13, 1941. She was working in a cafe in Seattle at the time. Then Vic went into the Merchant Marines and she moved to San Francisco to be close to Vic when he came home. They they moved to Seattle where he drove a truck and she worked in restaurants. They then moved to Whidbey Island and stayed there until Vic past away. Doris then moved back to Ferndale. She is survived by her nephew and his wife Jack and Liz Randall; niece and her husband Sue and John Muggy; and lots of great nephews and nieces. Doris is preceded in death by her parents Selma and Charlie Berg; husband Vic Aason; brothers Cecill Barr and Vernon Barr; and sister Bernice Nelson.

Farewell Tribute Information

Doris's Graveside service will be held 10:00AM, Monday, July 15, 2013 at Greenacres Memorial Park, corner of Northwest and Axton Roads.