

Dorthymae Longo

November 19, 1932 - November 9, 2013

Born in Seattle, Washington

On November 9th, 2013 Dorthymae Longo slipped into the arms of Jesus after running her race with deep faith and a gentle grace. Dorthymae was a wonderful woman gifted with many abilities and talents. She spent her life making every moment special and meaningful for her family and friends. She impacted everyone she met with her unconditional love and welcoming arms. Her faith, compassion, and example will forever live on in the hearts of those she left behind. We honor her and a life well lived for her God and her family. We, her family say, Well done mama.

Dorthymae was 80 years old and lived in Lynden, Washington and is survived by her husband of 40 years, Frank Longo, 5 children; Dan (Kathy) Colacurcio, Frank (Dyan) Colacurcio, Diane (Jeff) Coston, Kathy (Pat) Harkins and Chris (Kathy) Colacurcio, step-son Michael (Holly) Longo, 20 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren; sister Mary Vanderplueg.

“ Dorothy was such a joy to see in the office when she would come in. There would always be a sweet smile from her to everyone around. You can tell that family was so important to her and she had a lot to be proud of.

Hugs and prayers for the family as you continue on without her. She is in God's glory and pain free! Praise God! We all look forward to being with her someday.
