

Eleanor Anne Bustanoby-Keane

October 31, 1943 - March 28, 2014

Born in Milledgeville, Georgia

Eleanor Anne Bustanoby-Keane, 70, died on March 28, 2014 in Bellingham.

She was born October 31, 1943 in Milledgeville, Georgia to Andre Olivarez Bustanoby and Rosemary Van Evers Bustanoby. Anne attended schools in various locations, including England and Belgium and graduated from high school in Tampa, Florida. She married Stephen D. Glover in Enrid, Oklahoma on September 1, 1962 and had two children; Stephen Douglas Glover, Jr. of Las Vegas, Nevada and Rosemary "Mia" Lynne Glover (Nickels) of Corinth, Mississippi. She was divorced from Steven Glover in early 1967, while living in New Jersey.

In May 1976, she married Robert E. Keane in Mount Laurel, New Jersey. In 1984 they moved to Cortez, Colorado and lived there for 7 years until his retirement in 1991 when they moved to Lummi Island, Washington.

Anne studied nursing while in New Jersey and in 1978 became a licensed practical nurse, working in New Jersey and later in Washington. She also became a volunteer with American Red Cross in the early 1990s. She met her close friend, Richard Moore, while working with Red Cross and together they raised llamas and alpacas until his death in 2001. Anne moved to the Leopold in Bellingham in 2003 where she lived the rest of her life.

Anne is survived by her sister Lynne Dolores Bustanoby (Seattle), brother Pierre Andre Bustanoby (Seattle), nieces and nephews.
