“My dear sister Erin, I will miss you! We had lots of great memories growing up. I will never forget your chuckle that always caused me to laugh along with you. Your laughter was certainly contagious. I was heart-broken when I had heard that you were no longer with us. I will miss you and will treasure and value the memories we had.
Your sister, Julie Beaver”

“I'll always remember the fun times we had as kids growing up on the farm. I was lucky to have you as a roommate, because even though my side of the room was always a mess, yours was always immaculate! I loved our times walking home together from piano lessons when we would sing “do re me...” at the top of our lungs. You worked hard to live a good life. Thank you for always being there for me when I needed a friend and sister to lean on. Love, Jill.”

“ Erin, I still remember the day that you and I were working together at Home Depot and we realized that Sammy and my Daughter were seeing each other. Then we found out that we had more in common than that. We found out we were born the same day same Hospital within a few hours of each other. I often wondered where you went after you left Home Depot. My daughter and Sammy are still friends my condolences to him and his family.
