“ My uncle was a gentle and kind spirit. He always had a smile with a tale to tell and a quick witted humor. I felt blessed to get to know him better when him, my other uncle Jim, and I cruised the coastal highway all the way down to San Francisco. Too much fun for three adventurous men. He never complained although I know his neck bothered him a lot. My only regret is that I didn't bring a recorder on our trip as he never repeated the same story out of the many he told about life and his beloved family❤️
