

Florence Neeley Morris

November 19, 1912 - February 9, 2014

Resident of Bellingham

Florence Neeley Morris passed peacefully into the arms of her Heavenly Father at St. Francis Extended Healthcare in Bellingham. Born in Hutchinson, Kansas she was the seventh child of ten to Charles and Edith Heaney. Florence married Charles Morris in 1931 in Wellington, Kansas. They moved to California in 1940 to farm their poultry ranch together until their retirement in 1969. Florence moved to Washington in 1974 to be with family. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Charles; grandson Edward L. Morris; daughter-in-law Marylin (Robert) Morris; and all of her brothers and sisters. Florence is survived by her 2 sons, Robert Charles Morris of Everett, WA and David Lee (Judy) Morris of Ferndale, WA; five granddaughters; sixteen great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. Mom loved reading, traveling in her motor home until 2006, and her flower gardens. She was a lifetime member of Methodist churches from Kansas to California to Custer, WA. The family wishes to thank all of the staff at St. Francis for their loving care and assistance during her stay.
