“ My husband and I worked with Harold at Carriage House Fruit years ago. He always called in saying “what’s the good word?”, and was always a hard-working and faithful employee. He loved to visit and reminisce about those days. He also loved to sing hymns and was confident he could recall and sing more hymns than anyone else. I’m sure he was right on that! Now he is in Heaven singing praises in the presence of his Lord and Savior.
