

Harriet Erdean McEuen

April 25, 1925 - May 17, 2013

Harriet Erdean McEuen, age 88, passed away in her home in Bellingham, WA on May 17, 2013. In 1961, Harriet married Norman McEuen, and was married for 30 years until his passing in 1991. She was a member of Eastern Star, bowled twice a week, and was proud of her 500 pins.

Harriet worked as a bookkeeper for Osier-Cedar, and was a member of the First Christian Church in Bellingham, WA. In her spare time, she enjoyed participating in church bazaars, gardening, and especially loved to dance.

She is survived by her daughter Karen Leake of Bellingham, WA, son Jerry Mills of Spokane, WA, brother Merle Brandsrud, stepdaughter Lynne Siebenforcher, and grand-daughter Kim Siebenforcher. The family would also like to extend a very special thanks to her friend and companion, Wayne Deming, and her niece, Beth Salas, for providing the flower arrangements.

She is predeceased by her husband Norman McEuen (1991), infant daughter Lynn Marie Mills, and granddaughter Kerri Ann Leake (1991).
