

Helen J. Parberry

February 12, 1925 - January 20, 2013

Helen Josephine Parberry passed away peacefully on Sunday January 20, 2013. Helen was born in Bellingham, to Victoria and Joseph Zwarun on February 12, 1925. She was raised by her mother and step-father George Marriott in Alger, where she attended school. Helen came back to Bellingham where she went Beauty School and became a beautician working at a beauty salon in the Leopold Hotel. She then met Gordon Parberry, and they were married September 10, 1960. Helen enjoyed her dogs, the outdoors and had many happy times on Mt. Baker with her husband. Helen was preceded in death by her husband Gordon Parberry, her parents and her sister Anne Pittman.

Farewell Tribute Information

She will be laid to rest with her beloved husband at Woodlawn Cemetery on Saturday January 26, 2013 at 3:30 pm.

Tribute Wall

VB

“ My favorite memory of her is when she would visit her sister (Ann) who was my Mother. It was always a guessing game as to what color and style her hair would be. She always loved to hear about our Cocker Spaniel – “Buffi”---she adored dogs !! She will be dearly missed !

---

Vicki Bauer - January 20, 2013 at 12:00 AM

RP

“ Please accept my sympathy in the painful loss of your dear Helen. You the loving Family & Friends will hopefully be comforted by the following Bible Verses: Rev21:4-5 “AND HE WILL WIPE OUT EVERY TEAR FROM THEIR EYES AND DEATH WILL BE NO MORE, THE FORMER THINGS HAVE PASSED AWAY”

---

Rita Perry - January 20, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SE

“ Helen was a feisty, independent woman. I met her at BTC where she visited regularly until recent years. She was a generous friend of the culinary arts program. She even planted an herb garden for them. She was quietly generous with everyone she cared about. It was a privilege to be her friend. I will miss her.

---

Sherry Ellis - January 20, 2013 at 12:00 AM