“ To Janet’s children and grandchildren, I was away at the time of Janet’s death and only now heard the news. Your mother was a wonderful volunteer at the Other Bank. She was so good at interviewing people and helping them find services. During down time we had many chats about her family and all of your activities. You were all so dear to her. Please accept my sincere sympathy.

“ My deepest sympathy to Janet’s family and friends. May the “God of all comfort” be with you during this difficult time. (2cor.1:4) Be assured that the promises held out for us in the scriptures will be fulfilled. Acts 24:15 promises a resurrection, psalm 37:29 promises life forever on earth and Revelation 21:4 promises that God ” will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” I hope you can find some comfort and hope in these promises. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ To my dear precious Momma, You did so much to take care of us all. You worked very hard and helped us with anything we needed. You were always there for us; and we could always count on you. So now, as I go through your things and see that, even in that, you were thinking of us and leaving little helpful notes for me. I still want to pick up the phone each day and call you. I loved your passion for life, your big laugh, and how sometimes we would laugh so hard on the phone that we couldn't talk and we would have to catch our breath. I love that we got to zip line in Hawaii together just a few years ago. I love how you were so involved in all my kids activities and always cheered them on. I love how you always wanted to help those in need. I love how you were always thinking of others. I know that even in the midst of your troubles, you always tried your best and gave your best. I'm going to miss you momma. A lot. I love you. Your daughter and friend, Lori
