

Janet Ellen LeMaster

January 29, 1933 - May 5, 2026

Janet Ellen (Hallman) LeMaster of Whatcom County passed away peacefully on May 5th, 2026, in her home with her daughters by her side.

Janet was born January 29th, 1933. The daughter of Ralph Hallman and Ella (Duim) Hallman. She married the love of her life, Kay LeMaster, on October 2, 1953, and they shared 62 wonderful years of marriage before his passing. During their marriage they raised their 3 daughters in Washougal, WA and Everson, WA.

Janet was a devoted Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother and Great-Great Grandmother. She is survived by her 3 Daughters: Kelly IsFeld, Kathy Alexander and Lisa LeMaster. She leaves behind 3 Grandchildren: Wade Gardner, Kari Gardner and Todd Visser. Janet was proud to also have 13 Great Grandchildren and 7 Great-great Grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Kay LeMaster, her parents Ralph and Ella Hallman, Her Sister and Brother-in-law Joann and Terry (Mike) Brackinreed, her Son-in-law Corporal Mark R. IsFeld and her infant Great Grandson Meyer Kalam Phillip McConnell.

Janet enjoyed decorating, gardening, sewing and cooking. Her favorite times were when her family would all be gathered together for holidays or celebrations. Family meant everything to her.

Janet was a faithful Christian and loved the Lord with all of her heart. She became very close to her Church family at Liberty Fundamental Baptist Church in Lynden, WA. Her family would like to thank their congregation and Pastor Randy Small for all the love and support they poured upon her.

Janet will be remembered for her caring heart, sense of humor and unwavering faith. She was excited and ready to meet her Lord and Savior.

Janet's wishes were to not have a funeral but to have her immediate family gather together for her burial.

Mom/ Grandma,

You will be missed beyond measure. Thank you for everything you instilled in us and the memories you helped us make. This isn't goodbye but rather "until we meet again."

Love,
Your Family
