

Jeffrey Allen Solomon

May 15, 1949 - January 21, 2025

Jeffrey Allen Solomon of Lummi Nation was born on May 15, 1949. He was fisherman and a carpenter. He graduated from Roswell Employment Training Center in 1969 in Arizona which led him to run his own business for a time – Solomon Drywall.

His hobbies included spending time with his grandchildren and attending their sporting and school events and other extracurricular activities. He also loved exploring garage sales and assembling challenging puzzles.

Jeffrey had always done well, to bear witness, at community and family gatherings.

He was always willing to give someone a ride while enjoying their company and making someone's life easier.

Jeffrey is preceded in death by parents Marjorie Mildred Wilson and Stanford

James Solomon. By siblings Stanford, Doreen, Jerry, and Richard. By children Brian Craig and Kevin Rae.

Final resting place is Lummi Cemetery on the Lummi Indian Reservation near Bellingham, Washington.

Although you cannot see me, I am there If you look around, I am everywhere.

I am in the stars that shine so bright, I love you with all my might.

I am in the sky so clear and blue,

Remembering the good times, I had with you.

I am in the trees full and green,

Heaven is the most beautiful thing I've seen.

I am surrounded by everlasting light,

It is very beautiful and bright.

From today you have done all you can, letting me go is part of the plan.

Please dry those tears,

And wipe away those fears.

I feel no pain anymore,

Only love fills my core.

My spirit is free to be,

Flying high for all to see.

Angels surround me every day,

They tell me everything will be okay.

As I watch you from the cloud, You make me very proud.

Although you cannot see me, I am there If you look around, I am everywhere.
