

Jerry McBeath

November 21, 1940 - December 14, 2018

Jerry McBeath, age 78, passed away in Bellingham on December 14, 2018. Jerry was born on November 21, 1940 to Clinton & Margaret McBeath. He and his sister grew up in Everson/Nooksack.

Jerry was loved by his family. He enjoyed more than 45 years behind the counter at Evergreen Golf course in Everson, WA. Customers and friends loved coming in to chat about sports, have a laugh, eat lunch, and talk about politics of the day. Jerry was well known for his sense of humor and for his incredible knowledge of sports related statistics. After retiring, he enjoyed helping his children and grandchildren in many ways. He loved simplicity in life, but also enjoyed the complexity behind strategy in sports and other areas. Jerry will be greatly missed by his family, friends, customers, and residents of Whatcom County.

Jerry is survived by his sister Ginger Lamberson, sons Matthew, Dave, and Jay McBeath, grandchildren Jace, McKenzie, Alexandra, Camren, and Roan, and nephew John Lamberson Jr.

A Celebration of Jerry's life will be held on Saturday, January 26, 1:00pm at Moles Farewell Tributes – Bellingham, 2465 Lakeway Dr.

Tribute Wall

LH

“ We lived on the farm right next door to the golf course and my dad helped them as their mechanic. Years later went Jerry was running the course my brother Butch took over as the mechanic and grounds keeper. I also helped Jerry by working in the club house until it was sold. Jerry loved basketball and betting on horses. My condolences to all his family. Rest in peace Jerry

Linda TenKley HolmesWiebusch - December 14, 2018 at 12:00 AM

HJ

“ You are missed.

Hal Lee Jr. - December 14, 2018 at 12:00 AM