

John Brooks

February 15, 1922 - May 1, 2018

Following an accidental death, John is to be laid to rest on Tuesday, May 15th at 10am, at Greenacres Memorial Park (5700 NW Dr. Ferndale). He will be buried next to his spouse Mary (2015), daughter Sharon Gehring (2010), and granddaughter Shannon Brooks (2012).

You will forever be missed by surviving family members; sons John C. Brooks and Gerald F. Brooks, daughter Shirley (Rick) Todhunter; sister-in-law Patricia Brooks, grandchildren Jon Workman, Leandra Hanson, Janell Kortlover, Aaron Kortlover, Brandon Todhunter, Jeff Brooks, and Fawn Brooks, and also by his nieces, nephews, and great-grandchildren.

John provided and supported his family throughout the years with/in his carpentry skills, which included most of the construction on the overpasses from Bellingham to the northern border, remodeling the Leopold Motel, Western Washington University, and Coupeville School, to mention just a few. Prior to these jobs, he traveled to Alaska and worked on the Ross Dam project. John grew up in Seattle area and had many stories of living in the Rainier Valley area, when it was still considered rural. John never lost any details or got tired of telling these adventurous stories.

We LOVE and are THANKFUL for the blessings, securities, and support you provided for us children through the many years we were HONORED &

BLESSED to have shared with you.

May your soul be forever peaceful and your legacy live on in the hearts of all the friends and family for generations to come!!!

Tribute Wall

AC

“ John Brooks was a great uncle and he was good person and I actually will miss him on the behalf of the Brooks family had severed other losses I wish the family of John Brooks a Happy time in heaven and was hoping for the best I love you John Brooks you're a great person

---

Andy Cutler - January 28 at 02:45 PM

LT

“ Shirley, we are sorry to hear of the passing of your father. Our thoughts are with you and your family.
Tom and Linda Turner

---

Linda Turner - May 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM