“ Claire and I send condolences to Terry and Jay, and their respective families.

As you know, your dad and I were friends since high school. 70+ years ago. He and your mother, and Claire & I, shared countless laughs through the years. We have missed Arlene, and now will miss Jack. They were great people, and great friends. And very proud of you, their grandkids and great grandkids. Bob

“ So sorry to hear of Jacks passing. We were good friends at Affinity. Many games of Pinochle and long talks. A very interesting and all around great person. Janet Mead

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. I too have felt the pain of losing some of those I love in death. I hope you are being surrounded by loving family and friends and taking care of yourself during this difficult time. The God of all comfort provides hope for those who have passed away and comfort for those who have survived. We are promised that our loved ones will return to us one day very soon. As Jesus resurrected his friend, Lazarus, and many others, you will see your loved one again. (John 5:28, 29) How the True God longs to do that! (Job 14:14, 15). Until then, may you continue to keep his memory warm in your hearts until you see him happy and healthy again one day very soon. Prayers and thoughts are with you . . . I hope you find the time to be comforted by the following information:
