“ May God with you all. My heart breaks. God thought Kashton was special and took him home before us. He has his wings. God is holding him and loving him for you, until you meet again in Heaven. Please know that it is Gods will. No one is at fault. He is a beautiful Angel.

God bless you all. I am so very sorry for your loss. I've put in a prayer request at my Church for all of you. May God help you in your time of need.

If anyone needs a special prayer, just let me know. I will do that along with my whole Church.
