

Kelly Lynn Abbott

November 21, 1961 - March 20, 2015

Kelly Lynn (McWilliams) abbott left us for the next awaited chapter on March 20th, 2015, following a three year struggle with cancer. She was born November 21st, 1961 in Flint, Michigan to Thomas and Nancy (Brown) McWilliams. Kelly was raised between Flint, Michigan and Chicago Illinois until she relocated to Washington in 1989 and found her home in Ferndale. She married her “Rest of lifetime partner “ Bill Abbott in 2004, who was always by her side, especially during the last three years of their challenges.

Kelly is survived by her loving husband William (Bill) Abbott, her best friend and Mother Nancy (Jack) Shufelt, her father Tom (Rita) McWilliams, Sr., her brother Thomas (Kellie) McWilliams, Jr., her nephew Spencer McWilliams, and numerous grandchildren as well as her wonderful Family and friends who stood by her during the good and the bad.

Huge hugs of Thank you’s and love are extended to Whatcom Hospice’s team that was an important and caring part of her comfort at the end.

There will be a Celebration of Kelly’s life on Saturday April 11th, 2015 at 2:00pm at Moles FarewellTributes Ferndale Location. In lieu of flowers please assit Whatcom Hospice to continue sharing their amazing gifts and skills to all who are in need.

Tribute Wall

GH

“Kelly was an inspiration of love and hope to all that knew her! I feel honored to have known her and experienced her complete positive attitude! She will be missed!”

Gudlaug Hawkinson - March 20, 2015 at 12:00 AM