

Kevin Merle Bartlett

July 23, 1957 - April 5, 2013

Kevin Merle Bartlett was born in Sidney, Nebraska July 23, 1957, to parents William Merle Bartlett and Faye Brost Bartlett. Kevin's elementary education was in Artigas, Uruguay. His secondary education was in Murdo, SD.

He graduated from Black Hills University, Spearfish, SD. with a degree in Elementary Education. He worked with children in Minneapolis and taught in Bakersfield, CA. Kevin worked various jobs in Bellingham, most recently ten years at Bellingham Goodwill.

Kevin was preceded in death by his father. He is survived by his mother, sister Marti Bartlett of Bellingham, sister Elizabeth (Kevin) Hasch of Phillipsburg, KS and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Kevin loved working with children. He was a generous and compassionate man who will be missed by those who knew him.

Kevin's family wants to express gratitude to Interfaith Clinic, St. Joseph's Hospital, Bellingham Goodwill, John Hooper, probation officer and Steve Harrison, counsellor with Catholic Community Services Recovery Center and the Our Primary Purpose AA group.

“ Dear Bartlett Family, My two oldest children, Matthew and Megan Clow, had Kevin as their second grade teacher at Harris School in Bakersfield, CA. I remember him as a kind and dedicated educator.
Megan had Kevin the year he began having some difficulties and moved away. We moved to Lynden in 1995. I wish I had known he was in this area; I would have made an effort to contact him. When I saw his obituary in the Bellingham Herald, I was so sorry to hear of his difficulties and death. Please accept our entire family's condolences for your deep loss. Jana Clow Matthew Clow Megan

“ To the loving Mother,Sisters,Family & Friends, may I offer my sympathy in the painful loss of your dear Kevin. Hopefully you will be comforted by these Verses from the Bible: Psalms36:7 “HOW PRECIOUS YOUR LOVING-KINDNESS IS O GOD! AND IN THE SHADOW OF YOUR WINGS THE SONS OF MEN THEMSELVES
TAKE REFUGE,FOR WITH YOU IS THE SOURCE OF LIFE”
