Kevin Michael Shelley was born September 14, 1964 and passed away December 2, 2024 at home in Bellingham, Washington. Kevin was an active member of our community until recent years.

He loved going to Spin Dances, Max Higbee Center and was very proud of being in the band Out of the Ashes. You can never have too much Cow Bell. He was known as "A Ladies Man" and for giving great hugs. Kevin had an amazing memory for facts and could tell you detailed information about many football players. John Elway and the Denver Broncos were his favorites.

Kevin is survived by his mother, Judy Dube and extended family. He was loved by family, friends and caregivers for over 60 years and will be missed.
